

The Korean horse is smaller than the cow. It is a miserable little beast. It, too, is always attended by a "Mapoo," or driver, who leads it. They are ridden as shown in the picture, with the rider's feet resting on the side of their necks. The man on the back of this horse is Mr Ko, whom I wrote a short article about, published in the Independent - Oct. 20. '92

(Mr. Baird's comment to her) mother. R+B

A son of his became Dr. Ko of Severance Hospital in Seoul.
See Profile on Dr. Wm. Baird,
<sup>49</sup>pages 50, 52 & 54.